PROMISE FULFILLED

Isaiah reminds the people of God that the land shall be restored to their possession, they shall rejoice to see their people return from the bondage of exile, and they shall be a light to the nations. In other words, through the people of Israel, the Savior shall come to all people who seek God with a sincere heart. This brings joy and the radiance of God's glory to all the world and to all people everywhere. Through the fidelity of the people of God, and through God's fidelity to them, all people shall become God's children and rejoice in the fulfillment of God's promise to Israel.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The assembly has gathered from near and far, on foot, by bus, by car, by subway, singly and by twos and threes: single people, couples, families. Now that movement is ritualized and made visible in the liturgy's entrance procession.

We are not alone on this journey; Christ is with us. The procession is led by the cross, with the image of Christ upon it. Candles, signs of a living presence, are carried around the cross. Candles also accompany the Book of the Gospels, another sign of Emmanuel, God-with-us. The priest presider is likewise a sign of Christ's presence in our assembly; he will act in persona Christi, in the person of Christ, who presides at every Eucharist.

As the procession begins, we stand and sing together in our first act as a community. The joining of our voices begins to turn many into one. The songs we sing range from ancient chants to contemporary hymns, but they have the same purpose, to foster our unity and turn our thoughts to the mysteries we gather to celebrate. We may feel that we can't sing well, but "Christ always invites us to enter into song, to rise above our own preoccupations, and to give our entire selves to the hymn of his Paschal Sacrifice" (USCCB, Sing to the Lord, 14).

Weekend Mass instructions

There will be no Parish Hall Mass on Sunday, January 3rd, The Epiphany of the Lord.

The suspension of Masses -- for the first time since public celebrations resumed in June -- will finally allow Fr. Chuck to recover a bit and regroup from the ever-changing challenges of providing safe public celebrations during the pandemic. (We should learn this week if the Bishop's allowance of the so-called drive-in Mass protocol will extend into January.)

Fr. Kelly had been under the weather this past week and, combined with the cold outdoor weather, could not celebrate some scheduled weekday Masses. And it is unreasonable to call upon visiting priests to celebrate Mass when, week-to-week, the weather -- cold and rain -- can be so unaccommodating for our restricted outdoor settings.

Thank you for your continued understanding as we all navigate through these challenges.

On Hiatus

Our public celebrations of Mass are on hiatus until Sunday, January 10th.
