Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord March 28, 2021

HOLY WEEK

For the Palm Sunday Gospel, we return to the Gospel according to Mark. The account of the Passion takes up nearly one-third of Mark's entire Gospel and, of all the evangelists, he is the one who presents the details most graphically. He depicts the humanity of Jesus most intensely, describing his sufferings thoroughly. Mark portrays Jesus as a complete fulfillment of the "Suffering Servant" of Isaiah, the obedient, humble slave dying on a cross of whom Paul speaks in Philippians. But it is important to remember that we call this "Holy Week" and not "sad week" or "suffering week," for each of the readings today, even the lamentations of the psalm, end in the promise of the strength and hope that is granted by God to those who faithfully give of themselves in love. As we enter into this week through these readings, we must reflect deeply on the sufferings of Jesus, but still be confident in the joy of risen, eternal life that awaits all of us who faithfully walk with him through these days.

SACRED HEART PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

We are a diverse, multi-cultural Roman Catholic Parish.

Relying on the guidance of the Holy Spirit, we endeavor to build the kingdom of God through liturgy, prayer, education and outreach to those in need.

We come together as a faith community to celebrate life's joys and sorrows and minister to all who come to us.

Prayers for Strength and Healing If you wish to add someone to the prayer concerns for the sick, please gain permission from the patient before calling the Parish Office. Thank you.

Please remember in your prayers, the sick and their caregivers:

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Holy Week is the culmination of the liturgical year. During these holy days, the liturgy will lead us, with Jesus, to the depths and to the heights.

It begins with a harsh juxtaposition, as we carry palms in remembrance of Christ's triumphant entry into Jerusalem and then listen to the Passion according to Matthew, as the King is handed over for crucifixion. Then, on Holy Thursday, we remember the night Jesus was handed over—the night he gave himself for us and to us, to live in our midst forever in the sacrament of his Body and Blood. On Good Friday, we touch with our hands the mystery of the Lord's cross, the instrument of torture that has become the tree of life. Then, at the great Easter Vigil, the lighting of the paschal candle speaks to us of the triumph of light over darkness, of life over death. The resurrection of the Lord becomes a living reality in our midst as the catechumens for whom the Church has prayed throughout Lent are plunged into the mystery of Christ's death and share in the glory of his resurrection. These are indeed holy days, the culmination of the Church's liturgy, and an invitation to participate in the very life of Christ. Come, let us worship.

Ongoing Formation Opportunity: Building Intercultural Competence for Ministers (Series)

We live in a time where information is available at the stroke of the keyboard and travel to far off places can take place faster than ever before. This has helped the mission of our universal church to commune with each other. With that, we encounter different expressions of our Catholic faith. This can cause gaps in communication that could be open to misunderstanding. You are invited to take part in this five part series to strengthen your role in the faith. Classes start in April. Visit: <https://www.scd.org/ongoingformation> or Contact Teresa Donan at 916-733-0132 or tdonan@scd.org

Online Giving Platform

If you are already an Online Donor with the Old ParishSOFT program, please use this URL:

<https://www.myowngiving.com/Default.aspx?cid=389> to access the Old ParishSOFT Online Giving (Legacy) program and cancel your donations in that program. If you have been donating online through the Diocese of Sacramento Catholic Foundation, please call the Diocese Catholic Foundation at (916) 733-0266 to cancel your donations.

Then go to the Sacred Heart Church Red Bluff website: www.sacredheartredbluff.org. Click on the "Donate Now" button and sign up for a new donor account and set up your donations.

Thank you for your continued support of Sacred Heart Church via the new online method. The Legacy program and the Diocese of Sacramento programs will eventually be phased out.

If you would like to mail a donation, the address to send it to is 2355 Monroe Ave Red Bluff, CA 96080

If you have questions, please call the parish office at 530-527-1351.

Ongoing Formation Opportunities through University of Notre Dame

Our partners at University of Notre Dame McGrath Institute offer online theology courses that are well-suited for catechists, school teachers, lay ministers, deacons, and all adult Catholics who seek to learn how to address pastoral challenges and share the faith with everyone they meet. These courses can be applied to renewal of your Basic Catechist/Minister Certification. The next round of courses begins April 12th. For more information visit: www.scd.org/ongoingformation
