Fifth Sunday of Lent March 21, 2021

THE NEW COVENANT

Today's first reading is an enormously important passage, not only in the history of the Jewish people, but also for us as disciples of Jesus, who see in it a foreshadowing of the Christian dispensation. The prophet announces that God has chosen to forgive the people, and that as a sign of divine forgiveness a new covenant will be established. Contrasting the new covenant with the one made with Moses on Mount Sinai, Jeremiah says that the new covenant will be written on the people's hearts rather than on tablets of stone. No longer will the community's tradition be the sole bearer of the covenant; henceforth, God will speak directly and personally to each individual, forgiving sin and calling for a return to God in faithfulness. No longer will mere outward compliance with the dictates of the Law suffice; henceforth, God asks for an obedience that springs from the depths of one's heart.

Precisely that kind of obedience is highlighted in today's second reading, where the author of the Letter to the Hebrews describes Jesus as the mediator of the new covenant whose obedience has made him the source of salvation for all who, in turn, obey him.

SACRED HEART PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

*We are a diverse, multi-cultural Roman Catholic Parish.
Relying on the guidance of the Holy Spirit,
we endeavor to build the kingdom of God through liturgy, prayer, education and outreach to those in need.
We come together as a faith community to celebrate life's joys and sorrows and minister to all who come to us.*

Prayers for Strength and Healing If you wish to add someone to the prayer concerns for the sick, please gain permission from the patient before calling the Parish Office. Thank you.

Please remember in your prayers, the sick and their caregivers:

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Each Sunday, we listen to three scripture readings. The first reading usually comes from the Old Testament. "The New Testament lies hidden in the Old; the Old Testament comes fully to light in the New," we read in the Introduction to the Lectionary. "Christ himself is the center and fullness of the whole of Scripture" (5). On Sundays, these readings usually have a close connection to the Gospel. In this season of Lent, for example, the Exodus account of the thirst of the Israelites in the desert is paired with the Samaritan woman's encounter with Jesus at the well. Ezekiel's vision of the Lord raising people from their graves is paired with the narrative of Christ raising Lazarus from the dead.

The readings are taken from many sources—historical books like Judges, Kings, and the Acts of the Apostles, prophets like Isaiah and Ezekiel, wisdom literature like Proverbs or Ecclesiastes. But no matter its genre, the first reading always ends with the same acclamation: "The word of the Lord." The scriptures are written by human authors who wrote in widely different cultural and historical contexts, but these human authors are also divine instruments through whom God speaks to us. And so we say, "Thanks be to God."

Holy Father's Intentions for the Month of March:

Violence Against Women

SH School and preschool Annual Auction and Dinner

Sacred Heart School thanks EVERYONE who helped make Saturday's Dinner and Auction event a tremendous success! Thank you sponsors, SH families, friends (near and far) and our local community. We couldn't have done it without all your support!

LIFENET POSITION

LifeNet Family Resource and Pregnancy Center is seeking an Executive Director to manage and direct a pro-life pregnancy center. This is currently a 30 hour per week position. Go to LifenetTehama.org/job for the job description and application.

On Easter Sunday, you may bring water to have it blessed. **

On April 5 -8, there will be no Daily Mass and the office will be closed. Although the office will be closed, we will be monitoring telephone messages. Daily mass will be starting again Monday April 12 at 7 am instead of 12 pm

On March 23, there will be Mass at 7 AM not 12 PM. The Masses after March 23 will be held at 12 PM

LifeNet Baby Bottle

Thank you to everyone who took a LifeNet baby bottle to fill with change, cash or a check. Respect Life Ministry members will be available to collect the baby bottles at next week's Masses. Please put the bottle in your car so you'll be sure to have it! Thank you for your generosity.

Weekend Mass instructions

A restricted number of people are allowed at each weekend Mass, and you need to sign up. To sign up, go to our website (sacredheartredbluff.org). Signing up this way reserves your space. If you have no internet, you may have a friend who can sign you up. If neither of those work for you, call 530-722-6694. This does not reserve your space. We will return your call to do that.

Weekend Mass schedule

Our weekend Mass schedule follows:

Saturday:

3:30-5:00pm Confessions at the Church

Sunday:

10:00 am English

12:00 pm Spanish

At the Parish Hall

Saturday Mass will be recorded to be viewed on Sunday. To watch the Mass please see the Sacred Heart Parish Website. **

Catholic Relief- Help Jesus in Disguise

Thank you for your generous support of The Catholic Relief Services Collection and for helping Jesus in disguise. Your contributions make a difference for the poor and marginalized around the world. If you missed the collection, it's not too late to give! Just visit www.usccb.org/nationalcollections for more information on how to give.
